

Abbreviations:

The following abbreviations are used in labels and definitions:

lit.	literally	ie.	that is
met.	metaphorically	pl.	plural trad.	tradition, traditionally	sb.	somebody, someone
cf.	cross-reference; see also	sg.	singular e.g.	for example	sth.	something
esp.	especially	spp.	species
etc.	et cetera; and more similar things	usu.	usually

These abbreviations are used for parts of speech:

(aux)	auxiliary (helper)	id	ideophone
(cop)	copular (verb) used for grammatical purposes	idiom	idiomatic or figurative expression (question)	used in questions	n	noun ad	modifier of noun or verb (adjective or adverb or mixture)	np	Proper Noun (such as a name) adj / adv	adjective/adverb	num	number an / vn	active noun/verbal noun	part	particle, short word used for emphasis or for grammatical purposes cm	noun class marker	prep/post	preposition/postposition con / conj	connective or conjunction, a word used to join or explain the connection between 2 parts of a sentence	pro	pronoun, a word used to represent a noun in a sentence det	determiner	v	verb
excl	exclamation	vi/vt/v2t	intransitive / transitive / di-transitive verb